VOL. CXV. No. 170. ALEXANDRIA, VIRGINIA FRIDAY, JULY 17, 1914. PRICE, 2 CENTS

CARRANZA TO BE NEXT PRESIDENT

Huerta's Successor as Ruler to Retire for Rebel Chief.

PEACE IS IN SIGHT

Carbajals Only Condition Is General Amnesty and Protection of Property in the Country.

Washington, July 17.—The United States expects Carranza to take over the Mexican government early next week. Its information is that already Acting President Carbajal has offered to make way for the constitutionalist first chief.

Although numerous messages are being exchanged between Consul Silliman, President Wilson's personal representtaive with Carranza and the State Department, their contents are witheld. It is believed certain, however, that Carranza has promised protection of all foreigners as soon as he throws his troops into the capital.

This is the main thing. If adhered to it will enable the United States to act promptly in recognizing the government that is to be established.

Washington, D. C., July 17.—Francisco Carbajal, successor to General Huerta as Provisional President of Mexico, has advised the United States Government informally that he intended to retire in favor of General Carranza, the Constitutionalist chief. President Carbajal wishes only that a general amnesty be proclaimed and protection given to the property of those who opposed the Constitutionalists. This statement of the attitude of Huerta's successor, together with the announcement from Saltillo that Carranza was willing to to enter into negotiations with Carbajael relative to the transfer of authority at Mexico City is regarded here last night as practically assuring a cessation of hostilites and the restoration of peace in Mexico.

The views of Mr. Carbajal were explained in detail to Secretary Bryan today by Jose Castellot, former member of the Mexican Senate, who called at the State Department with a personal telegram which he had received through the Mexican Embassy. It was the first communication between the American Government and the Carbajael Administration.

The message also revealed that Generals Huerta and Blanquet, en route to Puerto Mexico, are planning to go to Europe. The communication, addressed to Mr. Castellot, a personal friend of the new President, was dated last night, and follows:

"I have just taken the oath of office as President of the Republic. Generals Huerta and Blanquet departed last night for Europe. I desire to make it known with emphasis that my only purpose is to facilitate a solution of the grave problems which weigh upon our country. I have not the slightest ambition for myself and merely wish to terminate the internal conflict of our country. Please give me your impressions of the situation in Washington."

This message, Mr. Castellot explained, meant that Mr. Carbajael had taken office only as a means of bridging the gap from the Huerta to the Constitutionalists, and that the new President had no desire to remain in office.

A PROCLAMATION.

To the Officers Charged with the Duty of Conducting Elections Throughout the State of Virginia:

Pursuant to the provisions of an Act of Assembly, approved February 18, 1914, I hereby give notice that an election will be held at all of the voting precincts in this Commonwealth, on Tuesday, September 22, 1914, between the hours of sunrise and sunset, on the question of prohibiting the manufacture for sale and the sale of intoxicating liquors in this State.

Given under my hand this July 14, 1914.

H. C. STUART, Governor.

NEWS OF THE DAY

Harry Purdy, a councilman, of Moundsville, W. Va., and William Arn, of that city, were shot to death yesterday by Al Moore, a coal miner, following a quarrel over a fish net. The double killing occurred in a boat in the middle of the Ohio River, several miles below Wheeling. Moore used an automatic pistol, and Purdy was instantly killed. Arn died within an hour after the shooting. Moore took to the Ohio hills immediately after the tragedy, and is being pursued.

Two girls and a boy were drowned in a flooded quarry hole near Easton, Pa,. yesterday. They were floating on a raft when it upset. The boy, who could swim, made a gallant effort to save the girls, but sank with them.

A pair, who, the police say, eloped from Europe a month ago, were fiund dead from bullet wounds in their rooms in Seventh avenue, Newark, yesterday morning. The bodies were found on a mattress on the floor of one of the rooms, and between them, sitting up and awake, was the 3 1-2-year-old child of the woman. The police think it a case of murder and suicide. The man was Alfonso Cuono, 38 years old. The woman was Antoniella Ciccullo, 33 years old, who, according to the police, eloped with Cuono, taking with her her daughter, Giovannina, and deserting three other children and her husband.

Mrs. Helen M. Angle broke down in the Stamford, Conn., lock-up last night, where she is held, charged with the murder of Waldo R. Ballou, and her physician, Dr. J. H. Staub, was called twice to attend her. He advised that she be removed at once to a sanatarium. Admittance to a sanatarium was denied her on the ground of the notoriety that would be given the place. A trained nurse was then installed. The nurse is watching her in the dormitory of the city jail. It is feared she may grow violent.

Figures obtained from authoritative sources show that the liabilities of the H. B. Claflin Company, of New York, are at least $40,000,000, and that they may reach $45,000,000. On the day the failure was announced the liabilities were placed at $4,000,000, largely due to contingent charges. Later developments proved these figures to be near correct. The liabilities are made up as follows: Total indebtedness of the retail stores, $3,000,000, in addition to the Claflin notes, which amount to $31,000,000. The indebtedness of the H. B. Claflin Company on merchandise is placed at $4,000,000, and there is $2,000,000 due depositors on what the attorney for one of these depositors asserts John Claflin accepted in his banking business .

Georges Carpentier, the heavyweight champion of France and Europe, defeated "Gunboat" Smith of America, last night in London, in a scheduled twenty-round fight in the seventh round on a foul.

Four boys in their early tens, Frank Tumulty, John Hyde, Charles Griffon, and John Donohue, were charged in Paterson, N. J., yesterday with arson. They had tried to burn an old woman whom they believd to be a witch. The lads, afraid to go near to Mrs. Amelia Corbett, who, they said, had cast spells over them, set fire to the home of George Dunn in hope that the blaze would reach Mrs. Corbett's house, which was near the door, and burn her in bed. The old woman was saved by firemen. The boys were placed in charge of the probation officer.

A pitched battle between the sheriff with a force of ten deputies and a gang of 200 I. W. W. workers in which Sheriff W. A. Huseroft and County Detective Edward Lucas were knocked down and injured and a number of the I. W. W. workers laid out, occurred yesterday at Bradley, eighteen miles east of Steubenville, yesterday. The sheriff and his aids had gone from here to Bradley with warrants for nine of the I. W. W. leaders, charging riotous conduct, as a result of a raid made by a force of 300 upon mines in that vicinity Wednesday afternoon. After a sharp fight, five of the nine I. W. W. leaders were arrested, loaded into the autos in which the deputies went to

ANOTHER STORM IN PHILADELPHIA

Elements Produce Excitement in Quaker City.

LIGHTNING STRIKES

Electric Fluid Passes Into Telephone and Police Stations—Young Woman Seriously Injured.

Philadelphia, July 17.—Several persons were injured during the sharp electrical storm that burst over the city last night. A telephone girl was hurled unconscious to the floor and may die; three policemen were stunned by a bolt that struck the switchboard in the Germantown station house and patrons of film theater were almost plunged into panic when the lights were put out.

Sitting at the telephone switchboard on the eighth floor of the Reading Terminal, last night, Agnes M. Bordmann, of Washington Square, the operator, was knocked unconscious by a bolt of lightning which struck the wires and communicated with the receiver which the girl had over her head.

It was an hour after the storm before her unconscious form was discovered by H. K. McLaughlin, a Terminal watchman. He found the girl lying on the floor, with the receiver still on her head and her chair overturned. He summoned the police and had the girl taken to the Jefferson Hospital. At a late hour last night she was still unconscious and in a critical condition.

Every electric light in Germantown was put out by the storm. Lightning also struck the Fourteenth district police station, putting the switchboard in the house sergeant's room out of commission and knocking three policemen unconscious for a few moments.

Acting House Sergeant Whalen and Policemen Drough and Ireland were sitting in the room when the bolt hit the switchboard. All three men were thrown to the floor and stunned, but were soon revived.

Several hundred patrons of a moving picture theater at Chew street and Chelten avenue became frightened when the lights were extinguished and began to make a rush for the door. Several persons were knocked down, but none was seriously injured. The management of the theatre succeeded in quieting the crowd and all went out in safety.

Slipping on the wet pavement as he ran for shelter during last night's storm, William Dixon, of No. 1355 Bainbridge street, plunged headlong into a mail box at Twelfth and South streets and fractured his skull. He is in a critical conditon in the Pennsylvania Hospital.

DOCTORS MISTAKE FATAL

Bean in Throat Strangles Child Thought to Have Diphtheria.

Philadelphia, July 17.—A mistaken diagnosis, according to information which reached the Coroner yesterday, caused the death of 18-months-old Lena Carano, of No. 4844 Lancaster avenue. The child had been taken to the Municipal Hospital by order of the attending doctor, to be treated for diphtheria, a contagious disease.

The little girl died yesterday morning from strangulation as the result of a bean lodged in her throat. It was said that the convulsions brought about by the bean resembled those caused by diphtheria. At the Municipal Hospital cultures were taken and when no traces of the disease were found a further examination was made and the bean was discovered. The child had been in an isolated ward with diphtheria patients and could not be removed.

At the hospital the name of the doctor who sent the child there was withheld for the present, but it was stated that the name will be given to the Coroner later.

MANSLAUGHTER CHARGE.

Mr. Carman Will be Indicated by Nassau County, N. Y., Grand Jury.

Freeport, N. Y., July 17.—The Nassau County grand jury decided late yesterday afternoon to return an indictment charging manslaughter in the first degree against Mrs. Florence Conklin Carman, the beautiful Freeport woman accused of killing Mrs. Louise Duryea Bailey in Dr. Edwin Carman's office on the night of June 30.

The punishment for such a crime is imprisonment for not more than 20 years. District Attorney Smith, although declining to make public the decision of the grand jury, declared himself quite satisfied with the result of that body's deliberations. Even Dr. Carman himself, despite his evident disappointment that any indictment should have been decided upon, declared that things "might have been worse."

Justice Van Siclen will receive the indictment today, dismiss the grand jury and arraign Mrs. Carman. It is believed that bail will be fixed at $15,000 or thereabouts. Immediately thereafter Mrs. Carman will be taken by her husband to some quiet mountain resort, where she will stop until September, when she will face trial.

When the report that Mrs. Carman would be indicted today spread throughout Freeport and the adjoining towns, Dr. Carman was deluged with more than a score of offers from the wealthiest citizens of Nassau county who wished to go on her bond.

More than $150,000 in cash was offered to the doctor during the evening. Every one of his friends insisted that an offer be accepted as surety for Mrs. Carman's appearance.

One millionaire, who is considered the wealthiest of Freeport's citizens, offered a certified check for $50,000.

The two men who will probably go on Mrs. Carman's bond are Smith Cox, former supervisor of the town of Hempstead, and Ernest Randall, real estate man. They offered to go her bond for an unlimited amount.

Each offer was accompanied by expressions of faith in her innocence of any participation in the death of Mrs. Bailey.

MATCH IN POWDER FATAL

Smoking Miner is Blown Up as He Lights Pipe.

Williamsport, Pa., July 17.—Joseph Krishak, a miner, of Bitumen, died in the Lock Haven Hospital yesterday evening as the result of a terrific explosion in his home last night.

Returnng home from work, he went to the chair to change his clothes, and after lighting his pipe, threw the match aside. It fell on a keg of powder, which exploded, horribly burning Krishak and nearly wrecking the house.

A stove in the kitchen above was overturned by the explosion and set fire to the house. The flames were extinguished by neighbors.

A boarder at the Krishak home, who was in the kitchen at the time, was thrown against the ceiling and severely injured. The mines are to be closed down for the funeral.

PORTRAIT DAMAGED

Militant Suffragette Chops up Painting of Thomas Carlyle.

London, July 17.—Viciously hacking the portrait with a cleaver, a suffragette hatchet-woman today mutilated the painting of Thomas Carlyle in the National Portrait Gallery

The woman was identified as Anne Hunt, prominent among the militant suffragettes. She fought and scratched attendants who rushed down upon her, but was overpowered and arrested.

The Carlyle portrait was by Sir John Millais. It is ruined.

BIGAMIST ADMITS FIVE WIVES

New York, July 17.—George Chapin, 45, pleaded guilty before Judge Swann, in General Sessions, and will be sentenced Tuesday. Detective Russo says when Chapin was arrested his mother cried:

"Another! Why, that is seven wives you have!"

But in court Chapin said to Assistant District Attorney Smith:

"I admit five, but I'll tell the judge only about three."

HONEYMOON IN LIFEBOAT

Novel Trip Across Sea Planned by New Yorker and Bride,

New York, July 17.—A honeymoon trip across the Atlantic in a 36-foot power lifeboat is planned by Elmer Sivard, a naval architect and superintendent of a marine equipment company, and his young wife, Sigune Holm Sivard. They expect to sail from the Battery on July 25 and go by way of Boston and alifax to St. Johns and across the ocean from that point to Queenstown.

The Sivards were married recently and in order that the young wife may accompany her husband on the trip she will muster in as cook. The members of the crew will include a navigator, a wireless operator, an engineer and one sailor. They expect to make the trip in about a month, unless the weather proves too unfavorable.

The lifeboat is a Lundin, of the type asserted to be non-capsizable, non-smashable and practically unsinkable. The boat is expected to weather any seas, and the only danger, Captain Sivard said, was in being run down by an ocean liner. The little vessel was launched yesterday afternoon.

The power boat will tow an open lifeboat on the journey. The open-sea trip from St. Johns to Queenstown is expected to occupy from 15 to 17 days. From Queenstown the little craft will proceed along the English coast to London. If all goes well the return trip may be made back over the same route.

David Macks, of Danville, Commits Suicide—Son Burned in an Attempt to Rescue.

Danville, Va., July 17.—David Macks, 66 years old, long resident of this city, committed suicide yesterday by swallowing two ounces of carbolic acid.

Macks was local manager for the Castleberg National Jewelry Company of Washington, and it is currently reported that his accounts, which were being checked up by an expert, showed a shortage of over $4,000.

Both his son and his wife were present when he drained the fatal dose, the son being badly burned in an attempt to take the bottle away from his father.

PROFESSOR KILLED

Graham N. McManaway Falls Beneath Wheels of Virginia Beach Excursion Train.

Richmond, Va., July 17.—While attempting to board a Norfolk and Western excursion train in motion at Seventeenth street station, Virginia Beach, last night at 7:35 o'clock, Graham V. McManaway, 26 years old, of Petersburg, fell beneath the trucks and was instantly killed. Just before leaving Petersburg for Norfolk, Mr. McManaway accepted a position as professor of English and history in Richmond Academy. He had taught in the city high schools of Petersburg, and last year filled the chair of English and history at Chatham Academy. Mr. McManaway was well known in Richmond, having frequently come here onbusiness.

HEIRESSES WHO WED ABROAD

Representative Bowdle Justifies His Bill to Tax Them.

Washington, July 17.—Furnishing a list of 22 American heiresses who have married titled foreigners, Representative Bowdle, of Ohio, has issued a statement in support of his bill to tax the incomes of all American girls who marry men of title abroad.

Representative Bowdle refers to the opposition aroused when it was first proposed to tax inheritances, but says the practice now prevails in most of the States. He concluded:

"But here we have hundreds of millions of dollars removed permanently from America by a lot of shiftless lords and dukes who enjoy it while they live and then hand it on to their progeny who have nothing but contempt for democratic institutions, and they get this from American toil without a penny of tax.

"Under ancient fedualism the overlord at least lived in the centre of his estates, but America will shortly be an assemblage of industrial feudal estates whose owners live thousands of miles away. This thing constitutes a distinct peril to the republic, and will be recognized by both political parties within four years. In advance of any law of taxation, the carvers of wealth who still preserve thei rrespect for American institutions will see to it that their wills are arranged to stop this evil."

The two sisters who were born May 22, joined together, back to back, being united in the lower region, were cut apart in Paris yesterday. This difficult operation was performed by Dr. Mignot, assisted by Dr. C. W. Du Bouchet, chief surgeon of the American Hospital. The most delicate part of the operation was the dissection of the intestines, which at one point were united for a space of an inch and a quarter.

DETECTIVES IN A PISTOL DUEL

One Killed and Several Bystanders Wounded During Battle.

RESULT OF RIVALRY

Midnight Encounter in Chicago Streets Follows Raid in Vice Crusade Last Night.

Chicago, July 17.—A dozen contradictory stories, each differing from the others in important details, confront the Chicago police heads today in their effort to solve the mystery of a fatal duel fought at midnight by rival police squads in the Twenty-second street vice crusade. Detective Sergeant Stanley J. Birns was shot to death, and twelve other men, policemen and civilians, were wounded.

Rivalry between sections of the police now engaged in clearing Chicago's "tenderloin" is responsible for the midnight battle, in which the entire vicinity was shot up.

Four detectives and investigators attached to the staff of Morals. Inspector Danneberg, after raiding a disorderly resort, were being followed by a mob of gangsters and wharf habitues. From out of the darkness a brick was thrown. Detective Sergeant Birns and Detective John Sloop, both on the opposite side of the street, ran toward the mob. Guns boomed suddenly, the separate police details rushed at each other with their fire-spitting automatics, and the gangsters ran to cover. A pitched battle followed and the streets were cleared of civilians, leaving the policemen the sole occupants.

Ten minutes later a patrol wagon of policemen arrived. They found Birns dead, two bullets having pierced his body. Cloop, his partner, was wounded through the thigh. Two of Dannenberg's men, and two others who said they were bystanders were wounded.

Feeling between Dannenberg's vice-raiders, who work independently under Morals Inspector Funkhouser, and the regular police, has been bitter for months. The police allege that the vice investigators were trying to "show them up" by raiding resorts. The clash between Funkhouser's men and the regulars resulted in the resignation sevral months ago of Chief McWeeny.

DELIGHTFUL OUTING.

Inmates of Children's Home Visit Washington Yesterday.

The children of the Alexandria Children's Home were given a delightful outing yesterday by Mr. J. W. Rich, Superintendent of the Washington Virginia Railway Company.

Accompanied by Miss Timlow, the Superintendent, two helpers of the Home, and Mrs. Percy E. Clift, Mrs. H. B. Caton, and Mrs. L. E. Uhler, members of the Board, the party left Alexandria on the 9:20 car, and was met in Washington by a large sightseeing automobile which conveyed the merry group to Glen Echo Park. There the swings, seesaws and sandpile amused the little ones until lunch was served in the restaurant, after which they amused themselves on the slides in the midway, the merry-go-round and the roller coaster.

Pop-corn, peanuts and ice cream cones added to their afternoon's pleasure.

It was agreed that the day was one of the happiest the children had ever spent, and great appreciation was expressed for Mr. Rich's treat.

MURDER AND SUICIDE

Philadelphia, July 17.—Following a quarrel with his wife, Louisa, at their home, No. 21, North Paxon St., West Philadelphia, yesterday afternoon, Samuel Miller chased her into the yard next door and shot her three times. Then he turned the revolver on himself and sent a bullet into his brain. He died before reaching the West Philadelphia Homeopathetic Hospital and Mrs. Miller is in the same institution, with little chance of recovery. Miller was crazed with drink when he did the shooting, the police say.

The quarrel which led to the shooting occurred, the neighbors say, when Mrs. Miller refused to give her husband money with which to buy liquor. It is said that Miller was not a man who often drank, but that he had been indulging heavily the last few days because he was unable to find work.

MILLION TO UNIVERSITY.

Asa G. Candler Contributes to Institution to be Built in Atlanta.

Atlanta, Ga., July 17.—Atlanta was selected as the site of the university to be established east of the Mississippi River by the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, at a meeting here yesterday of the education commission appointed by the general conference of the church to choose a location for the proposed institution. Birmingham, Ala., and Hendersonville, N. C., were strong contenders for the university. The vote selecting Atlanta was announced as 12 to 2.

Announcement by Bishop Warren A. Candler, chairman of the commission, that Atlanta had been selected was immediately followed by official confirmation of the report that $1,000,000 had been given to the new university by Asa G. Candler, of this city, a brother of Bishop Candler.

In announcing the contribution Mr. Candler said that he had determined to make the gift regardless of the commission's action in selecting the location for the university. In his letter Mr. Candler said that he made the endowment because he was impelled by a deep sense of duty to God and an earnest desire to do good to my fellowman."

It was stated on reliable authority that the university as contemplated will represent an investment of $5,000,000. It is expected that work upon the buildings will be started before next winter.

The University in this city with that a Dallas, Texas, will have the full support of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

PROPOSED BOULEVARD

Washington Trade Bodies Agree to Construct Highway from Alexandria to Cemetery.

At a meeting of the Washington Chamber of Commerce, Board of Trade, Retail Merchants' Association, and representatives of Alexandria trade bodies yesterday afternoon in the rooms of the Chamber of Commerce, it was decided to build only part of the proposed boulevard from Washington to Mt. Vernon at present. The portion for which arrangements are being made will extend from the southeast corner of Arlington National Cemetery to the city limits of Alexandria.

The offer of the Agricultural Department, of furnishing half of the money needed, by the office of public roads, expires July 20, so the trade bodies of Washington will not be able to raise sufficient funds to provide for the building of the road from the capital to Arlington.

At a later meeting of the Washington Chamber of Commerce the ways and means of canvassing the city for funds will be discussed. According to Thomas Grant, secretary o fthat organization, funds will not have to be raised among residents for the upkeep of the road, as the office of public roads will look after its maintenance.

EAGER FOR NEW BRIDGE

Alexandria County Service Association Visits Capitol Yesterday.

The Utilities Committee of the Alexandria County Service Association, composed of Chairman E. E. Aldred, J. T. Manning, C. H. Drukenmiller, W. W. Malone, R. C. L. Moncure, counsel; T. C. Malone, president of Park Lane Association, and C. E. Hooper from the Cherrydale Board of Trade, called on Representatives C. C. Carlin and W. C. Adamson, chairman of Committee on Foreign and Interstate Commerce, at the capitol yesterday and urged immediate action on Mr. Carlin's bill for the construction of a new bridge.

Mr. Adamson informed the committee that if a new bridge were built—and he gave the impression that it would undoubtedly be authorized by Congress—it would be placed west of Wisconsin avenue. Mr. Moncure advised the Utilties Committee to drop any agitation for a Twenty-fifth street bridge and use its influence and efforts to secure an early passage of the Carlin bill.

VIOLATORS OF TRAFFIC LAW

Fourteen Persons Cited to Appear in Police Court This Morning.

Fourteen drivers of vehicles were cited to appear in the Police Court today to answer charges of violating the traffic rules and regulations.

A majority of those cited forfeited $1 collateral each, and those who put in their appearance were fined $1 each. In each case the charge made was making improper turns at street corners.

Among the cases was that of William Jackson, colored, a cart driver. According to the testimony he made the wrong turn at King and Washington streets.

In his defense Jackson said: "Judge, your honor, I turned that way in order to get home soon, as I was taking medicine and that was my prerogative." "It is my prerogative to fine you one dollar," said the court, and Jackson paid it and departed.

CALL SPECIAL ELECTION

Contest Will Take Place September 22—Notices Posted.

City Sergeant R. H. Cox today received a communication from Chief Clerk James H. Hayes, Jr., office of the Secretary of the Commonwealth, directing him to call a special election on State-wide prohibition September 22 next.

Notices to the foregoing effect were posted this afternoon at the various voting places in the city.

From now on there will be an active fight on both sides. In this city the "wets" will win out by a large majority.

Only 90 citizens here signed the petition asking the Governor to call a State-wide election.

In Alexandria County a total of 290 voters signed the petition.

MISCHIEVOUS YOUNGSTERS.

People in different sections of the city have ever been annoyed by boys during the fruit season, and in some cases it has been found necessary to cut down trees and grape vines in order to keep at peace with neighbors whose children invade premises and destroy fruit and flowers.

People residing on Cameron street, between Pitt and Washington, have been especially annoyed of late by youngsters They have entered the yards of several persons and pulled the flowers growing therein, and when discovered they treated the owners with disrespect. A yard was invaded a day or two ago by boys, who nailed up the front gate to keep the householder (a lady) out. After they had helped themselves to flowers they made their exit by the back gate, which they left open, and the lady's chickens made their way to the street.

CA RKILLS HER IN STORM

Elderly Woman Under Umbrella Walks Trolley Tracks.

Carlisle, Pa., July 17.—Mrs. W. O. Appleton, Dobbs Ferry, N. Y., who was visiting the Mt. Holly Inn, south of Carlisle, with her husband, was struck by a Cumberland Railway trolley car at a sharp curve close by the inn and instantly killed yesterday.

Mrs. Appleton, with umbrella raised, was walking the trolley track. Wet rails prevented the air brakes operating and her body was dragged. Her son, Dr. Floyd Appleton, rector of St. Paul's Episcopal Church, Harrisburg, had just arrived at the inn to visit his parents. The deceased was 68 years old.

ELECTRICAL DISTURBANCES.

Thunder storms throughout the Old Dominion during the past week have caused probably more deaths of a swift nature than in many years past. For the past few days there has hardly been a state newspaper which has not recorded daily, individuals and in some instances entire families being killed by thunderbolts which have fallen during the unusually violent storms experienced. At Fredericksburg a family of five which took shelter beneath a tree was instantly killed, and a family of four at Hillsville out black-berrying and caught by a storm sought the same kind of shelter and one was killed while the three others were injured by the lightning.

Apart from the fatalities from the bolts of Jove, a number of persons have been more or less injured by the same, while considerable damage has resulted to property.

In other parts of the country deaths and damages from electrical disturbances have been numerous. The terrific storm last Wednesday in Philadelphia caused one of the greatest scares from the elements the people of the Quaker City ever experienced. While midnight darkness prevailed the lightning was flashing incessantly and striking in many places.

A sixty-mile an hour gale accompanied a severe electrical storm in Norfolk and vicinity Wednesday. Although lightning struck in several places, no person was killed by the fluid.

The 30th instant will be the first anniversary of the thrilling experiences of Alexandrians when probably the worst storm ever seen by the present generation broke over this city. It was accompanied by midnight darkness, a seventy-two mile gale, a deluge of rain and some hail. Trees were blown down, and houses inundated. Nobody was hurt, however.

UNWRITTEN LAW FOR WOMEN.

The Newport News Times-Herald says:

"Many persons who have been following the dramatic case of Mrs. Carman, of Freeport, N. Y., are convinced that she killed Mrs. Bailey and are equally convinced that she never will be punished, and that the dead woman invited and deserved what she got. There is no reason why a woman has not the same right to kill another woman who invades her home that a man has to kill a man in like circumstances. Mrs. Bailey went to Dr. Carman's office alone, and without the knowledge of her family, and the evidence is that she had been there before. She was not known to have any illness requiring a doctor's care. The unwritten law is one instance where the equality and the equal rights of the sexes should be recognized. A woman 40 years old who goes secretly to the office of another woman's husband should be prepared to take the consequences of discovery."

"SUCCESS" MAY BE USED AGAIN.

Some English militants have developed into genuine inconoclasts. In addition to their many recent overt acts, they entered the Royal Art Gallery in London today and virtually destroyed a valuable painting of Thomas Carlyle.

The face of this great, but crabid old Scotchman, has been looking down upon visitors for some time, and why he should have incurred the vengeance of the women is hard to understand.

After dismal failures to curb the militants by prison sentences, it was suggested in London today that the disorderly suffragettes be placed on slow-sailing vessels and given an excursion to Australia.

The British sloop "Success," now on exhibition at Alexandria, may again be put in commission, and instead of visiting San Francisco next year, this ancient craft may be found making her way to Melbourne, Norfolk Island or some other place where refractory English people were sent in bygone days.

BAD BLOOD OF POLITICS

The fact that politics cause lifelong animosity between men who were previously friends is sad to contemplate, and the institution of a suit for slander by Alfred B. Williams against B. L. Hoge, a minister of the gospel, the outcome of the temperance issue, brings to mind some of the dismal chapters in the annals of politics in Virginia.

The issue between the north and south in 1861 placed former friends in hostile camps, and in some instances fathers were found fighting against sons when the dogs of war were finally turned loose. Although half a century has elapsed since the cruel war was brought to a close, the bad blood incident thereto is occasionally in evidence. The same unfortunate conditions were noticeable over a third of a century ago when the readjuster issue was on in Virginia.

In 1896, when the country became divided on the free silver issue, families, in some instances, were again divided, and bad feeling was manifest in too many instances.

The suit referred to above is probably but one of many other sad incidents which are calculated to disturb the waters in our old Commonwealth. Many men are conscientiously favoring the abolition of liquor from Virginia. Others, equally conscientious, are by no means convinced that any lasting good is to result from such legislation. Without reproducing the many arguments which are being used by the champions of both sides, it is apparent that before the result of the election shall have been announced many frictions, more or less serious, will be deplored by those of a conservative mould.

Many persons who are the most enthusiastic promoters of state-wide prohibition are prone to take it for granted that all who are not gazing through their lenses are apostates from Christianity on general principles. The class thus relegated to the company of the goats on the great and dreadful day of assizes are by no means disposed to accept this classification without protest, and they will naturally strike back.

It is hoped that both sides will weigh well their words, and that the campaign now on between the wets and the dries will not reproduce scenes which marred conditions in the past. While there may be divergencies in our political and religious creeds, there is no good reason why Virginians cannot always be friendly toward one another.

FLESH-FORMING FOOD

When you buy a package of Samose, the great flesh forming food, weigh yourself and see how much you gain in the first week's use. E. S. Leadbeater and Sons will tell of many of their customers who a month or so ago were thin pale and haggard but who are now, through the use of Samose, plump, strong and happy, with perfect health and attractive flesh. They have seen so many instances of the wonderful power of Samose to restore the weak and sick to strength and health, and to make good natural flesh that they give their personal guarantee with every package of Samose they sell to refund the money if it does not prove satisfactory.

Samose is a pure preparation, and can be used with absolute confidence by the most delicate. It gives remarkable results with children who are weak and run down and without appetite.

Why Suffer from Rheumatism?

When relief from rheumatic pains may be had at so small a cost it is surprising that anyone should fail to avail himself of it. Joseph Copparelli, Canastota, N. Y., suffered intensely with pains due to rheumatism in his limbs for a long time A friend told him about Chamberlain's Liniment. One application relieved him wonderfully, and a few days' treatment effected a cure. Many others have found quick relief by applying this liniment. For sale by all dealers.

KILLED IN TROLLEY CRASH.

Electric Train From Ocean View Collides With Coal Train.

Norfolk, Va., July 17.—At least four people were killed and scores were injured when an electric train of three coaches loaded with pleasure seekers returning to Norfolk from Ocean View collided with a coal train of the Virginia Railroad at Fairmont, a crossing about 8 miles from Norfolk.

Two of the three cars attached to the electric train were completely wrecked, and men and women with broken legs and arms and bleeding heads cried piteously for help. The cars, all made of wood, doubled up after the crash, and the passengers were pinned between seats and crushed.

Residents of Fairmont park and Baltentine place, located near the scene of the wreck, went to the assistance of the injured, and with axes cut them out of the mass of wreckage.

Only one of the dead was identified. He was J. Guthrie, and his body, horribly mutilated, was found under the first car. His name was in a hat found by his side

W. J. Atkinson, motorman on the electric train, escaped with a broken leg.

The accident happened shortly after midnight while the electric train was en route to Norfolk from Ocean View. Among the passengers were a number of excursionists from Roanoke and North Carolina and delegates to the national convention Ancient Order of Hibernians, which convenes in this city next week. Ambulances from every hospital in the city carried away sixty injured, some of whom will die.

Mrs. Astor's purpose, it is said in the county, is to build herself a home on the property.

LOCUST IN HIS SHOULDER

Insect Cut Out After Thirty-four Years.

Hagerstown, Md., July 17.—Cutting into a lump which had formed in the shoulder of Joseph Pinger of Sandy Hook, physicians were surprised to find a fully developed 17-year locust.

Ringer says he was stung by a locust in 1880, while clearing land. The pain was so great that he was rendered unconscious. In time, however, it disappeared, and he thought no more of it until a lump appeared on his shoulder in 1897. He was compelled to stop work on account of the pain, which, however, responded to treatment, and after several weeks the formation disappeared entirely and he was not troubled with it again until recently, when the swelling reappeared, forming a lump as large as a hen's egg.

Ringer sought physicans, who applied hot poultices. A few hours they made an incision and extracted a fully developed locust, which had, it is supposed, been incubating for the past 34 years. Ringer is now showing the insect as a curiosity.

Woman's Duty to Herself.
Every woman owes it to herself to keep in good health. No one can reasonably be expected to maintain a cheerful disposition when half sick. Indigestion and constipation are two of the most common ills to which women are subject and fortunately are easily cured. Mrs. H. C. Getty, Indiana, Pa., writes: "Last summer I was advised by a friend to try Chamberlain's Tablets for indigestion and constipation. This medicine not only cured me of these disorders, but toned up my whole system so that my health has been better than for years since taking them." For sale by all dealers.

A Hint to the Wise Is Sufficient.
When constipated take Chamberlain's Tablets. They are easy to take and most agreeable in effect. For sale by all dealers.

Dangers of Cholera Morbus.
In almost every neighborhood some one has died from an attack of cholera morbus before medicine could be procured or a physician summoned. Every family should be prepared for such an emergency. Mrs. E. M. Snyder, Herkimer, N. Y., says: "About four years ago my husband had an attack of cholera morbus. I gave him Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and it relieved the pain immediately, and two or three doses of it effected a cure." For sale by all dealers.

Quick Cure for Diarrhoea.
The most prompt and effectual cure for diarrhoea is Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. When given as soon as the first unnatural looseness of the bowels appears one dose is nearly always sufficient to effect a cure. It should be kept at hand ready for instant use. For sale by all dealers.

WISHED SHE COULD DIE
And Be Free From Her Troubles, but Finds Better Way.
Columbia, Tenn.—"Many a time," says Mrs. Jessie Sharp, of this place, "I wished I would die and be relieved of my suffering, from womanly troubles. I could not get up, without pulling at something to help me, and stayed in bed most of the time. I could not do my housework.
The least amount of work fired me out. My head would swim, and I would tremble for an hour or more. Finally, I took Cardui, the woman's tonic, and I am not bothered with pains any more, and I don't have to go to bed. In fact, I am sound and well of all my troubles."
Cardui goes to all the weak spots and helps to make them strong. It acts with nature—not against her. It is for the tired, nervous, irritable women, who feel as if everything were wrong, and need something to quiet their nerves and strengthen the worn-out system.
If you are a woman, suffering from any of the numerous symptoms of womanly trouble, take Cardui. It will help you. At all druggists.
